

The New Mexico Action Coalition (NMAC) is a statewide partnership of nurses, state government agencies, local business, and consumer stakeholders that are committed to improve health and promote health equity.

Our goal is to cultivate the overall health of New Mexicans by convening interested parties and facilitating discussion and collaborations that bridge statewide efforts. The NMAC is composed of over 75 members representing 30 organizations.

Our mission strives to provide strategic direction through community collaboration and grassroots efforts with key stakeholders to transform the health of New Mexico.

Our activities in New Mexico will focus on these four pillars in building a Culture of Health in our state:

- 1) Promote healthy living / health careers for children and youth.
- 2) Facilitate and support community health opportunities.
- 3) Identify and connect resources to address the social determinants of health and physiological needs.
- 4) Develop nurse management / leadership trainings that will prepare nurses for leadership roles both in their organizations and in their communities.
