MEET THE PRESENTERS

Kyle Kring
Kring & Chung LLP
kkring@kringandchung.com

Kerri Polizzi
Kring & Chung LLP
kpolizzi@kringandchung.com

RJ Cervantes
CALPASC Lobbyist
RJC@fernandezgov.com

Bruce Wick
CALPASC, Director of Risk Management
bwick@calpasc.org
OVERVIEW OF THE WEBINAR

Multiple Issues

- Will construction continue?
- What are the impacts of HR 6201 (Families First Coronavirus Response Act)?
- What are the Workers’ Compensation issues?
- What are the jobsite and safety issues?
- What are the issues of employees working remotely?
- What are CALPASC members doing, or thinking about doing?
HR 6201
FAMILIES FIRST CORONAVIRUS RESPONSE ACT

- Effective April 2, 2020
- Paid Sick Leave
- Family and Medical Leave
- Notice to Employees
- Immediate Tax Credit Offset
WORKERS’ COMPENSATION ISSUES

- Is quarantine a potential claim under workers’ compensation?
- Is the actual illness from COVID-19 a potential claim under workers’ compensation?
JOBSITE AND SAFETY ISSUES

- Information for employees that they are essential workers
- Managing employees on the jobsite, yard, or office
- Distancing
- Observing potentially sick employees
EMPLOYEES WORKING REMOTELY

- Wage and Hour Issues
- Cal/OSHA Issues
- Productivity Issues
- Cyber Security
WHAT IF CONSTRUCTION IS STOPPED?

- Contractual Issues
- Employee Issues
- Supplier Issues
- Cashflow Issues
CASHFLOW ISSUES

- Federal Stimulus-Phase Three?
- SBA Loans?
- Other State Assistance?
WHAT ARE MEMBERS THINKING?

OPEN DISCUSSION

If you have a question, please type ‘Q’ or ‘I have a question’ in the question box in the control panel. We’ll answer your questions in the order they are received.
FOR FURTHER QUESTIONS, CONTACT TODAY’S PRESENTERS

Kyle Kring
Kring & Chung LLP
kkring@kringandchung.com

Kerri Polizzi
Kring & Chung LLP
kpolizzi@kringandchung.com

RJ Cervantes
CALPASC Lobbyist
RJC@fernandezgov.com

Bruce Wick
CALPASC, Director of Risk Management
bwick@calpasc.org