

Jack E. Griffiths Property Person of the Year

Brad Krecklow, CPPA
San Diego Mission Chapter

The Jack E. Griffiths Property Person of the Year Award is given in memory of the founder, and first president of the Property Administration Association (PAA), now known as NPMA. This award is given to an active NPMA member who has made significant contributions to our Association and to the field of Property Management.

It is with great pride that the National Property Management Association recognizes Brad Krecklow as the 2026 recipient of the Jack E. Griffiths Property Person of the Year Award.

Over the course of more than 12 years in government property management and government contracting, Brad has established himself as a highly capable, forward-thinking leader whose work has had a meaningful impact on the profession. His career includes critical service supporting U.S. Central Command's Joint Theatre Support Contracting Command during Operation Enduring Freedom, where he led base closure operations and supported Operation Clean Sweep, helping strengthen government property accountability throughout Afghanistan. While serving there, he was awarded the Civilian Global War on Terrorism Award by the President of the United States, a distinguished recognition of his service and contributions.

Today, Brad serves as a Senior Government Property Manager at The Boeing Company, where he leads Vertical Lift global operations and sustainment operations for all property management system analyses across the full government property lifecycle, from acquisition to property closeout. His career progression reflects both his technical expertise and his reputation for strong leadership.

Brad's NPMA contributions have been equally impressive, and shows just how dedicated he is to keeping the bar raised high as he continues to give back his time and talent to NPMA. He has served as Chapter Delegate, Past President, and Western Region Awards and Editor Director. He currently serves on the NPMA Seminar Education Committee and has demonstrated an ongoing commitment to advancing the association's mission through leadership, mentorship, and professional engagement. Brad presented multiple breakout sessions at the 2025 National Education Seminar (NES) in New Orleans, Louisiana. His thought leadership was further recognized with a 3rd Place Literary Award at NES. Brad wrote an article published in The Property Professional Magazine and authored an article published in the NPMA Journal of Property and Asset Management alongside Dr. John Betterson and Dr. John Wyatt III, reflecting his strong contribution to the profession's body of knowledge.

NPMA is proud to honor Brad Krecklow for his outstanding leadership, service, and enduring impact on the field. Congratulations Brad!
