

Baltimore County Executive

Proclamation

DESIGNATING THE WEEK FROM MARCH 15, 2020

NATIONAL SURVEYORS WEEK

WHEREAS, for thousands of years, surveyors have used their talents to determine borders and help create communities across the world; and

WHEREAS, the role of the surveyor has been, and remains, of vital importance in the development of the United States, Baltimore County and to our private property rights; and

WHEREAS, throughout Baltimore County's history, surveyors have been essential in recording and determining our boundaries, dating back to the royal charter; and

WHEREAS, many of Baltimore County's most distinguished residents contributed to our communities throughout our history as surveyors, including Benjamin Banneker, one of early America's greatest minds; and

WHEREAS, today, Baltimore County's surveyors continue to use their talents to help our residents shape the future of our communities; and

WHEREAS, National Surveyors Week is an opportunity to recognize the historic contributions of surveying, and appreciate the new technologies that are constantly modernizing the profession; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John A. Olszewski Jr., as County Executive of Baltimore County, do hereby proclaim the week of March 15, 2020 as "NATIONAL SURVEYORS WEEK" in Baltimore County, and do commend this observance to all residents with appropriate programs, ceremonies and activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of Baltimore County to be affixed this fifteenth day of March in the year two thousand twenty.

John A. Olszewski Jr.

John A. Olszewski, Jr.
County Executive