

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the nature of surveying has changed dramatically since the Colonial Era when the profession was defined by the description and location of land boundaries; and

WHEREAS, today, surveying has expanded to include hydrographic surveys, engineering surveys utilized in the study and selection of engineering construction, geodetic surveys to determine precise global positioning for activities such as aircraft and missile navigation, and cartographic surveys used for mapping and charting; and

WHEREAS, professional surveyors provide important services through the use of sophisticated equipment and techniques, such as satellite-borne remote sensing devices and automated positioning, measuring, recording, and plotting equipment; and

WHEREAS, the role of the surveyor has been, and continues to be, integral in the development and advancement of our state and nation; and

WHEREAS, Washingtonians are encouraged to recognize professional surveyors and the important work they do for our communities and state, and to reflect on the historical contributions of surveying and the new technologies that are constantly modernizing this honored profession;

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the state of Washington, I do hereby proclaim March 15-21, 2020 as

Surveyors Week

in Washington, and I urge all people in our state to join me in this special observance.

Signed this 5th day of March, 2020

Governor Jay Inslee
