Proclamation

WHEREAS, Land surveying has been and continues to be integral in the development and advancement of our state and nation by determining the boundaries of our land, the greatest economic asset in America; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 45,000 professional land surveyors in the United States, and over 300 licensed land surveyors in Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, Licensed surveyors provide important services through the use of sophisticated equipment and techniques. Services include boundary line surveys and consultation, subdivision of land, topographic maps, and surveys for placement and construction of planned buildings, facilities, and utilities; and

WHEREAS, Implementing work that propels the nation’s economy, enhances quality of life, and safeguards America’s infrastructure is the primary focus of surveying; and

WHEREAS, To meet the challenges of the future, we will look more than ever to professional surveyors and their knowledge and skill to bridge the gap between technology, theory, and practical application.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Pete Ricketts, Governor of the State of Nebraska, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the week of March 19 – 25, 2017 as PROFESSIONAL LAND SURVEYORS WEEK in Nebraska, and I do hereby urge all citizens to take due note of the observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and cause the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska to be affixed this Eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord Two Thousand Seventeen.
