SESSION DESCRIPTION

A discussion will be presented by two seasoned, doctoral-prepared Family Nurse Practitioners who made the decision to return to school to obtain their Doctorate of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree. They will provide a visual grid to assist you in sorting out if returning to school is an option for you that will include how to select the school, determine cost, and management of work-life balance during your education. In addition, the benefits and possibilities available after receiving the DNP will be discussed.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this session, the learner will be able to:

1. Define essentials of doctoral education for Advanced Nursing Practice
2. Identify schools with DNP programs and how to interpret requirements and program details for selection.
3. Identify benefits and possibilities of a DNP education.
4. Discuss essentials and application to personal circumstances.
