Session Details

Session #: 302
Title: Political Competency & Advocacy
Speaker: Sarah Wickenhagen, DNP, APRN, FNP-C
Date: Saturday, October 15
Time: 9:45-11:00am
CE Contact Hours: 1.25
Pharm Hours: 0

Session Description

Discussion on Political Competency & Advocacy and why it matters for Nursing. Topics will include: What makes someone politically competent? Organizational roles and how they differ in policy and advocacy. How do we educate nurses on this topic? “All politics is local” discussion. Regional “hot topics” and future trends in Nursing Legislation.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this session, the learner will be able to:
1. Describe political competence and identify its 3 phases.
2. Identify barriers and facilitators of Nurse Advocacy.
3. Identify 3 practices of nurse leaders with past and present political competence.

Disclosures

Conflict of Interest for Presenter:

- The presenter(s) of this session declare no conflict of interest. As faculty/presenter for this activity, presenter attests that they will provide the best available evidence for this content and present information fairly and without bias.