

Session Details

Session # 116

Title: Updates on International Travel Medicine

Speaker: Lara Jesic, FNP

Date: 10/5/2017

Time: 4 PM

CE Contact Hours: 1.25

Pharm Hours: 0.16

Session Description

Guide to the latest updates on travel medicine including; preparing for travel, immunizations and disease prevention, safety during travel, and review of Malaria, Dengue Fever, Chickungunya, and Zika.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this session, the learner will be able to:

1. Identify what is needed in preparation for international travel.
2. Discuss travel immunizations and identify where the most recent immunizations update can be found.
3. Discuss causes, treatment and prevention of travelers diarrhea and other travel related diseases.
4. Identify similarities and differences between Malaria, Dengue, Chickungunya, and Zika.

Disclosures

Conflict of Interest for Presenter:

- The presenter(s) of this session declare no conflict of interest. As faculty/presenter for this activity, presenter attests that they will provide the best available evidence for this content and present information fairly and without bias.