

Cases Set For Trial: (As amended March 23, 2020, pursuant to General Administrative Order 20-3.) Cases set for trial that have been reset by this order shall be set for Trial Setting (Not for trial as previously ordered), on the day to which they have been rescheduled.

It is further ordered that cases set for trial beginning April 16, 2020 through May 15, 2020 shall have the trial dates converted by this order to Trial Setting Dates.

All cases affected by this order should expect to have a trial date set within 60 days of the trial setting date, assuming normal court operations have resumed.

- Please note that on any case where all parties agree to maintain the currently scheduled trial, the court will accommodate that agreement.

Scheduled Motions: All motions not set by order are stricken and will need to be renoticed and scheduled when normal court resumes. Contested motions set by order will be automatically continued approximately 30 days but the current briefing schedule shall remain in full force and effect.

Emergency Motions: An emergency judge will be available in room 2005 from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon, Monday through Friday, for presentation of valid emergency motions only. Please note that the only issues that are considered emergencies are those in which irreparable harm will be caused if not addressed immediately. No other emergency motions should be filed. Routine motions are not valid emergency motions.

Scheduling Emergency Motions: Movant will call Chambers telephone for room 2005 at 312-603-6343 and relay the substance of the emergency motion to be presented. The Emergency Judge will review the request to determine if it is a valid emergency. If the motion is not a valid emergency, it will not be heard and the clerk will inform the movant of that decision. If the motion is a valid emergency, the clerk will inform the movant that the Emergency Judge will hear the motion and direct parties to Courtroom 2005 for hearing. Based upon volume and changes in circumstances, these procedures may change and any changes will be posted on the Law Division section of the Chief Judges website.

Information contact: listed below is contact information for all sections covered by this order and should be used as the first point of contact for procedural information regarding a case pending on a specific calendar. These numbers will be monitored several times a day and court employees will be promptly responding to voicemails, after consulting with the judge to whom the case is assigned.
