

Who We Are

We are dedicated to improving the legal representation of indigent noncitizens by equipping those attorneys assigned to representing these clients with expert advice and defense strategies.

Our goal is to support the attorney in assisting his/her noncitizen clients in making informed choices regarding any adverse immigration consequences which may arise from a family law and/or criminal court proceeding.

Our Services

We provide assistance, support, training, written resources, and expert legal advice to court-appointed defense attorneys throughout the Capital District and Northern New York.

We will advise assigned counsel on potential immigration consequences as they relate to the following:

- ◇ Criminal charges, convictions, and/or plea agreements and sentencing dispositions,
- ◇ Appellate and post-conviction relief options,
- ◇ Family Court dispositions which include matters involving child support and family law offenses.

We will also assist attorneys in addressing any language access issues in order to facilitate meaningful communication between attorneys and their clients.

Why We Exist

Changes to immigration laws have dramatically raised the stakes for noncitizens to be subjected to deportation and removal from the United States for a wide array of crimes, including many minor offenses and violations. Consequently, criminal defense attorneys are now required to advise noncitizen clients as to the potential immigration consequences of a criminal conviction pursuant to the Supreme Court ruling in Padilla v. Kentucky, 559 U.S. 356 (2010). This advice must be affirmative, individualized, and accurate.

In addition, noncitizen clients whose immigration status may directly impact such life-altering decisions as child custody, visitation, adoption and termination of parental rights should be properly advised in family court proceedings.

The Regional Immigration Assistance Center—Region 3 is one of six Regional Immigration Assistance Centers funded by an innovative grant from the New York State Office of Indigent Legal Services.
