

The New York Schools Insurance Reciprocal Presents
A No Cost Seminar for NYSIR Members

Free Speech-Hate Speech – Navigating DASA Seminar

Seminar Description: This training provides school administrators, faculty, and other staff a candid opportunity to better understand the volatile challenges facing schools. Slogans, comments, and seemingly harmless statements are now being used as potential destructive forms of hate speech. Being able to differentiate the nuances between free and hate speech is vital in dealing with the current events within our world. Using his expert Olweus training, Randy Nathan's presentation takes the legalese and puts it into common language. Randy identifies warning signs of real and or perceived features of words, sayings, and comments being slung about without thought of consequence. Additionally, he addresses the need for fair and consistent policies that utilize both the DASA and the school's Code of Conduct. Please extend this invitation to Building Administrators, School Psychologists, DASA Coordinators, School Social Workers, Counselors and other related staff.

Key Seminar Points:

- Free Speech and the First Amendment and Propaganda – Hate Speech
