GUARDIANS OF INNOCENCE: PREVENTING CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE

WHEN:

Tuesday and Wednesday,
August 3-4

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

As school boards, districts and BOCES search for ways to address and prevent child sexual abuse and molestation, NYSIR, in conjunction with global reinsurer Munich RE, presents its 2021 statewide symposium, Guardians of Innocence - Preventing Child Sexual Abuse. Two online, full-day sessions will offer education professionals the opportunity to learn about legal strategies to defend against related claims; the dangers of inappropriate grooming and fraternization; strategies to prevent online abuse and the creation of strong sexual abuse prevention programs. There is no cost for this virtual symposium.

TOPICS TO BE DISCUSSED:

- Mental health impacts of sexual abuse on students
- Legal implications and preventive strategies
- Inappropriate relationships – grooming and fraternizing
- SAM and remote learning
- Human trafficking and child sexual abuse
- Innovative measures to prevent child sexual abuse
- NYSIR's SAM prevention programs

SYMPOSIUM REGISTRATION:

To register, please email Krystal Allen at kallen@nysir.org with the names of attendees and their school districts by July 23. Online links to symposium sessions will be sent to attendees the week of July 26. Please indicate if you need CTLE credit so a CTLE Request Form can be provided to you. Professional certificate holders can earn up to nine hours of CTLE credit.
