

NYSIR Risk Management presents a No Cost Virtual Seminar on

Student Travel Safety Seminar

Student travel provides wonderful opportunities to inspire learning and to provide unique experiences beyond the classroom. History comes to life when students visit famous sites which they have read about in their studies. A trip to the state capital allows student to observe how laws are made gives new depth to civic lessons. To remain proactive in this area, this seminar will touch upon several areas for a successful excursion.

Who Should Attend: District and Building Administration, School Business Officials, Transportation Directors and Coordinators and others involved in setting up Field Trips.

Topics Covered:

- Charter Bus Best Practices
- Vetting Charter Bus Companies
- Field Trip Logistics
- Permission Slips and NYS No Fault Insurance
- Insurance Limits and RM Practices

Seminar Presenters: David Christopher, Executive Director NYAPT; Kathy Cassella, Transportation Coordinator, Three Village CSD; Jeff Carlson, Deputy Superintendent, Three Village CSD; Lowell Aptman, Sr. VP of Claims – NYSIR; Brett Carruthers, Director of Risk Management and Joyce Moore, Risk Transfer Supervisor

Date and Time:
