

NYSIR Risk Management presents a No Cost Virtual Seminar on

Threat Assessment and Behavioral Intervention Teams

One of the ongoing struggles from the Pandemic for most Districts and BOCES has been student mental health issues. Some of these issues involve threats being made against others and schools. How does your District/BOCES respond to threats? Do you have a Threat Assessment Team? What immediate steps can be taken? Who should be included on these teams? This and more will be shared during this informative seminar by members of the Saratoga Springs City School District's Behavioral Intervention Team.

Who Should Attend: School District Leaders; School Business Administrators; Building Administrators; Facility Directors and Other School Community Partners.

Topics Covered: The following will be covered in this Seminar:

- What is Threat Assessment?
- Why is Threat Assessment Training Necessary?
- How are Threats Classified?
- Who should be on the Team?
- Behavioral Intervention Flowchart

Webinar Presenters: David L'Hommedieu, Asst. Supt. for Information Technology and Operational Innovation; John Thuener, Director of Facilities and Operations; Bethany Nightingale, District Coordinator of Special Education (Elem Schools) and Micki Jones, Safety Specialist.
