

2022 Symposium

A Sporting Chance: Creating a Safer Environment for Student Athletes

NYSIR's Exclusive, No Cost Virtual Symposium August 1-2, 2022 #NYSIRSymposium

Program Description:

Athletics are a meaningful way for students to learn many life lessons not taught in the classroom. Teamwork, leadership, resiliency to name a few. However, participating in athletics can lead to injury and subject students to bullying and hazing. To aid districts in managing these risks, NYSIR and NYSPHSAA in conjunction with global reinsurer Munich RE, presents the 2022 statewide symposium, A Sporting Chance – Creating a Safer Environment for Student Athletes. This one day, in-person and online program will offer athletic leaders and education community professionals the opportunity to learn new leadership skills; learn about the latest in managing concussions; understand the importance of crisis planning and how to be better leaders and coaches based on five core principles. There is no cost for this symposium.

Symposium Registration:

To register, please email Krystel Allen @ kallen@nysir.org with the name(s) of attendees; school district or entity name. Please indicate the following: whether you will be attending in person or online; and whether you will be attending the reception on Monday, 01 August 2022. Registration deadline is July 22, 2022. Online attendees will receive session links the week of 25 July 2022.
