Think Bigger, Lead Better, Win More!

The background of the slide features a series of seven basketball player silhouettes in different colors (yellow, orange, red, teal, dark blue, purple, and maroon) arranged in a line. Each silhouette is in a different pose, representing various basketball actions like shooting, passing, and dribbling. A basketball hoop is visible in the top right corner. Overlaid on each silhouette is a question mark in a color matching the silhouette. A large white text "Open for Questions?" is centered across the middle of the image.
