

Bruce Mayhew

President

Bruce Mayhew Consulting (BMC)

Bruce has a passion for helping his clients achieve their professional development goals.

As a Corporate Trainer and Keynote Speaker, Bruce helps clients communicate clearly and express their values in a way that sets them apart in the minds of their customers and co-workers by delivering customized and interactive training solutions,

As an Executive Coach, Bruce empowers his clients to recognize their capacity and to build on their natural strengths. Bruce coaches executives to build upon their natural leadership style (s) and to learn complementary leadership styles to increase employee engagement and be more effective.

Bruce is a Professional Development Trainer and Executive Coach with over 20 years' experience helping people and organizations succeed. At the beginning of his career, Bruce spent over eleven years with Scotiabank, designing and developing corporate marketing strategies, working on merger integration teams, and training the national sales team.

Bruce actively volunteers for several local and national charities and has recently retired as a SPIN instructor.