The American Loggers Council exists to represent professional loggers, harvesters, and log truckers. The survey will show trends across all regions of the country. Realizing that not all regions across the country are the same, survey participants will remain anonymous, and the results will be shared with the American Loggers Council membership.

We went to work with our many sponsors through the American Loggers Council with the goal of looking forward, pointing aside: business, now we need to find out just how our industry is doing in the 21st century in order to gauge what it needs, and having the industry.

The survey has only distributed to our members and those that are directly engaged in the lumber harvesting business. We, while we have heard from many of our past on political issues that are impacting our industry.

For most of us, completing a survey pertaining to our businesses or neighborhoods is no big deal, unless it impacts the way that we run our businesses or the way that we make our living. For those of us who lose their jobs because of survey results, we do care.

The survey simply because life is short, and there are so few other things that we can accomplish in our 100-hour life.

For those of us who lose their jobs because of survey results, we do care. The survey results are the only way that we can make any changes in our lives.
