Join the Jefferson Soil and Water Conservation District and partners for a series of clinics designed to provide local landowners with information about opportunities and programs to help make strategic management decisions for their properties.

March 17, 2020 Topics:

Plant/Insect Invasive Species & Current Research Control Options
Presenter—Erika Lyon, OSU Extension

How Invasives Impact Wildlife Habitat.
Presenter—Travis Bowman, Nat’l Wild Turkey Federation

Increase Your Wealth & Woodland Health; tools & resources to sustainably and profitably manage woodlands on your property.
Presenter—Jamie Regula, ODNR, Forestry

The second session in the series
MARCH 17, 2020
Jefferson County JVS
1509 Co. Hwy 22A
Bloomingdale, OH 43910
Doors open 5:00 pm
Buffet served from 5:15pm to 6:00 pm
Rsvp by March 13, 2020
imoore@jeffersoncountyoh.com or 740 264-9790
$5.00 per person