Diversity in the Library: Working for all children and teens

Friday, November 8th, 2019
Norman Public Library Central
103 W. Acres, Norman, OK 73069

Diversity means a wide array of things within our libraries. Learn how to better serve all of your children, teens and families by interacting with guest speakers who offer special services and diversity programming, hearing from an Oklahoma author who strives for cultural sensitivity in children's lit, and touring a new library and discussing accessibility.
