

DIY Collection Development: Tools for Your Collection

Topics will range from policy to statistics to physical and digital access and ownership to tools and trends in collection development. Attendees will learn about how to write and use collection development policy, how to promote diversity in the collection, how to use data to make collection development decisions, how to make collection development decisions based on patron preferences, and will learn about new collection development practices and technologies.

Friday, October 25, 2019

Stillwater Public Library
1107 S. Duck Street
Stillwater, Oklahoma 74074

Cost:

$130 for non-members
$65 for OLA members
$30 for students

CEUs:

.53 CEUs offered by the Oklahoma Department of Libraries for attendees

Register:

<https://www.oklibs.org/event/TSRT2019>

Agenda:

- 9:00 AM Registration and Breakfast
- 9:30 AM Collection Development Policy Panel
- 10:20 AM Collections for Diverse Communities: LGBTQ+ and Multilingual Collection Development
- 11:10 AM Break
- 11:20 AM Data Driven Decision Making in E-Resources
- 12:10 PM Lunch
- 1:10 PM Lightning Rounds: Collection Development Tools
- 2:10 PM Break
- 2:20 PM Patron-Driven Acquisitions Panel

Sponsored by the Technical Services Round Table

Contact Jenny Bodenhamer with any questions at jbodenhamer@metrolibrary.org