

Dr. Anita Gupta is a globally recognized physician-pharmacist, World Economic Forum Member Expert, Top 10 Women of Influence-Fierce Healthcare®, Princeton-Harvard Business School Alum, and an award-winning c-suite executive, anesthesiologist. Dr. Anita Gupta is a highly accomplished, innovation, drug expert with a proven track record of advancing breakthrough initiatives in the United States. Notably, recognized for breakthroughs related to the drug crisis as the American Society of Anesthesiologists appointed Gupta to advocate at the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to expand the use of naloxone, an opioid-blocking drug, on the front lines to address overdoses. Gupta helped to flag the emergence of synthetic opioids in the Philadelphia drug trade, including fentanyl and illicit drugs W-18. Board Governor of the Princeton University Asian Alumni Association, Co-President of the Regional Director of the Alumnae Network of the Harvard Women, and served as a board director of Healthy Women, and the California Society of Anesthesiologists. Appointed as an expert member of the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine Global Forum on Innovation and a Distinguished Fellow member of the National Academies of Practice based in Washington DC, USA. Featured by New York Times, Washington Post, Forbes, CNN, MSNBC, The Huffington Post, Milken Power of Ideas, among others. She is also the recipient of top industry, leadership, business awards: Patient Advocacy Award by the National Academies, Top 100 Most Inspiring Leaders by PharmaVoice, Top 10 in Healthcare Business in Philadelphia, Top 10 Emerging Leaders by Pharmaceutical Executives, and Goldman Sachs 10K Small Business Scholars, among others.