

Geraldine T. O'Shea, DO

Trustee

Jackson, California

Geraldine T. O'Shea, DO, an osteopathic internist from Jackson, California, has been medical director of the Foothills Women's Medical Center in Jackson, California, since 1998.

Dr. O'Shea Chaired the AOA Strategic Planning Committee and, along with the entire Strategic Planning collaborative, presented the AOA Strategic Plan 2021 – 2026 to the AOA Board of Trustees at their Midyear meeting in February of 2020. The Strategic Plan will guide as a 'North Star' the value statements and priority objectives of the AOA as we strive to be more a more diverse, equitable and inclusive community. It was met with unanimous approval.

Dr. O'Shea has been an AOA Board of Trustee since 2013 and will continue to serve this year on the Ethics Review and Board Appeals Committees.

Geraldine T. O'Shea, DO, is the Immediate Past Chair of the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners (NBOME). The NBOME's mission is to protect the public by providing the means to assess competencies for osteopathic medicine and related health care professionals. She assumed the NBOME Chair in December of 2019 and has carefully helped guide the organization through the many challenges presented by the COVID pandemic.

As past president of the Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons of California (OPSC), Dr. O'Shea was chair of the California Delegation to the AOA's House of Delegates between 2006 and 20014. She was honored to receive the OPSC Lifetime Achievement Award in February 2012.

Dr. O'Shea is a graduate of the Western University of Health Sciences College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific in Pomona, California, as is her husband, Mark E. Eastman, DO and their daughter, Amelia S. Eastman, DO.