

Dr. Patel is a visionary healthcare leader with a unique perspective on standard of care vs. right care.

Prominent roles:

1. Chief Medical Officer of an HCA hospital
2. Senior Vice President of TeamHealth
 1. former Chief Medical Officer of an HCA facility
 2. former Regional Medical Director for Emergency departments
 3. former Director to Health Care Excel, the Quality Improvement Organization for Indiana.

Currently engaging Dr. Patel brings a wealth of experience to the table. Recognized for his contributions, Dr. Patel has received accolades like the Indiana Rural Health Leadership Award and has spoken at renowned conferences.

Currently serving as the Chief Medical Officer of Proactive MD, he plays a pivotal role in aligning employers, patients, and physicians to improve health outcomes and reduce healthcare expenditures. Dr. Patel bridges the gap between business and medicine, bringing physicians and hospital leadership together.

He is a Fellow of esteemed organizations and a nationally recognized authority on healthcare quality. As a consultant to KEPRO, he demonstrates his commitment to driving healthcare excellence.

Dr. Patel's impactful leadership and dedication to patient-centered care have made him a driving force in transforming healthcare, striving for positive change and a culture of accountability and excellence in the industry.