

Dr. Hendriksz, a proud alumna of Touro University California College of Osteopathic Medicine (TUCOM), completed her D.O. degree at TUCOM after earning her undergraduate degree at the University of California Los Angeles. She then undertook her Pediatric internship and residency at the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles. Returning to TUCOM, she has held various roles since 2009, and has been the dean of the College of Osteopathic Medicine since 2021.

As a Professor of Pediatrics, Dr. Hendriksz has received the TUCOM Teacher of the Year Award five times and national recognition for her contributions to medical education. She served as Editor-in-Chief of the eJournal of the American College of Osteopathic Pediatricians for 7 years, and her expertise extends to speaking at over 30 national events on medical education, humanism, and pediatrics.

Additionally, Dr. Hendriksz is a recognized fellow of both the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) and the American College of Osteopathic Pediatricians (ACOP). She has been on the National Faculty of the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners since 2012 and chaired the Pediatric COMAT Examination from 2016-2018. Recently, she served as an Executive Committee Member of the AAP Section on Osteopathic Pediatricians.

Beyond her professional commitments, Dr. Hendriksz is dedicated to the well-being of physicians and trainees. She has served as the Medical Director of the Vallejo City Unified School Based Clinics since 2014 and continues to practice pediatrics at the Solano County Family Health Services clinic in Vallejo. Outside of work, she enjoys traveling, spending time with her family, and engaging in activities like bike riding, SCUBA diving, hiking, wine tasting, and savoring good food with loved ones.