An OPS Summer Success:
1st Summer Educational Program in Park City, Utah, July 7-12, 1984, expands photographic education
by Dennis J. Makes, C.R.A.

The Ophthalmic Photographers' Society implemented its first Summer Educational Program at Prospector Square Conference Center in Park City, Utah, on July 7-12. The quality of education and the excitement were high for all those who attended the courses offered in anterior and posterior segment photography.

The beautiful mountain location of Park City, the excellent facilities and helpful staff of the resort made this a memorable meeting for the 150 people who attended. Ample photographic equipment and faculty allowed smaller groups providing more individual attention which increased learning opportunities.

As the overall meeting coordinator I would like to thank all of the participants for attending our first Summer Educational Program. I would like to also thank the equipment manufacturers for providing the equipment necessary to teach "hands-on" photography.

A special thanks goes out to all of the OPS members who contributed their time and energy to make this meeting a success. We are a volunteer organization and rely on the "special" efforts and ideas of our membership. I greatly appreciate all of your help.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the super efforts of the members of the Program Committee:

Bonnie Carlstrom, C.R.A., C.O.T.
J. Michael Coppinger, M.A.
Charlie Juarez
Paul R. Montague, C.R.A.
