Article # - Management Rights

Except as may be limited by an express provision of this Agreement, and applicable federal law, all rights to manage the facilities and direct employees are vested exclusively in the Employer. This Article is to be interpreted broadly and is intended as a clear and unmistakable waiver of the subject matters identified. The management rights as to which the Employer may so act include, but are not limited to:

- determining its services, methods for delivering services and operations;
- the right to discontinue or transfer processes, services or operations;
- to sell or lease the business free of the liabilities of this Agreement;
- to introduce new or different methods, processes, procedures, technological changes, equipment or facilities;
- to automate job functions or duties, and/or to determine, or redetermine, the methods, processes, equipment, and materials to be employed;
- to subcontract work, provided that it has given the Union thirty (30) days advance notice, and upon request, meets to discuss impacts to bargaining unit providers;
- to hire or contract for temporary employees to perform work;
- to establish or continue policies, practices, or procedures except those that conflict with the provisions set forth in this Agreement;
- to establish, modify and enforce reasonable rules and regulations on any matter whatsoever, including, but not limited to, employee conduct, discipline, and safety policies and procedures, as well as work activities, and to amend and revise current policies, rules and regulations, except those that conflict with the provisions set forth in this Agreement, without first having to bargain with the Union to impasse or agreement;
- to select and to determine the number and types of employees required;
- to determine or redetermine the number and kinds of classifications required subject to the provisions set forth in this Agreement, including appropriate notice to the Union;
- to assign work covered by this Agreement in accordance with the requirements determined by management;
- to establish and change work schedules, shifts, locations, duties and assignments subject to the provisions set forth in this Agreement;
- to transfer, promote or demote employees, or to lay off, terminate or otherwise relieve employees from duty, subject to the provisions set forth in this Agreement;
- to establish wage rates for new or changed classifications or positions following appropriate notice to the Union;
- to establish work or performance standards;
- to shut down for any reason necessary;
- to suspend, discharge, or otherwise discipline employees for nondiscriminatory, legitimate reasons subject to the provisions set forth in this Agreement;
- to fix standards of quality and quantity for work to be done;
- to determine job content;
