2018 National Nurses Week Event!

Come join members of your ONA/SAB executive team and ONA labor relations representative Ateusa Salemi for a fun Nurses Week event.

Ateusa and the team will have refreshments for all who attend! She will be onsite in the Revelation conference room from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. on May 8 and will be leaving treats for night shift nurses on their units.

New to ONA Leadership or Committee Work?

Want to find out how best to enforce your contract? Have general questions?

Come to a training! On Saturday, May 26 from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Baker City, Ateusa Salemi, ONA labor relations representative for eastern Oregon, will hold a training to introduce the basics of unionism to new leaders and those interested in leadership. Topics will also include staffing committee/professional nursing care committee (PNCC) work, contract enforcement, and member engagement.

Light snacks and beverages will be provided. Training will be located in the Elkhorn Conference room. RSVP to Ateusa at Salemi@OregonRN.org.
ONA/SAB Nurses at the ONA Convention!

At this year’s ONA Convention, nurses from all over the state came together to share their units’ accomplishments over the past two years.

We are all making strides to win better working conditions for nurses and safer care for patients!

Above: On April 18, 2018, Kim Anderson, RN; Marianne Stone, RN; and Alyson Rino, RN, pose at the 2018 ONA Convention’s Bargaining Unit Leadership Dinner.

Be Part of the ONA Nurse Leadership Institute

ONA is now accepting applications for members interested in participating in the second annual Nurse Leadership Institute (NLI).

The NLI is designed to create a cohesive and dynamic community of peers that is organized to affect change and respond to challenges in politics, practice, and labor.

An intensive, unique program, built on an evidence-based leadership model, the NLI will help you develop and strengthen vital skills needed to advance the nursing profession.

Applications are due by Aug. 3, so visit the ONA website for more information and to start your application today!
