Vote on Bylaws!

A critical step in setting up our new union is to vote on bylaws. Bylaws will help us to function as a union on a basic level. Bylaws cover committees, responsibilities of officers, elections, membership, dues, and the makeup of our committees.

Welcome Rhonda Kenny, our new labor rep!

Rhonda Kenny, RN joined ONA in 2022 as a labor representative. Rhonda has worked as a nurse for 32 years. She has worked in many settings including Med/Surg, ICU, Float Pool, Post Anesthesia Care Unit (PACU), and Endoscopy. Rhonda even has some Obstetrics (OB) training from working in a Critical Access facility for 10 years.

Rhonda moved back to Ontario in 2017 to be nearer to her family. She has always sought to work in facilities where the nurses had union representation.

Rhonda believes that working together is the best way to serve each other and patients. In her most recent job, she served on the negotiating team and was also a steward and membership chair of her unit.

ONA Member Benefits

Members Have a Voice.

ONA members are the only techs who can vote on contracts and other issues that matter to techs

Members Give Us Power.

Each member gives us added strength at the bargaining table to advocate for improvements to patient care, tech-staffing, and other important issues.
