12. What community issues should the association be addressing?
Low income and affordable housing, Veteran housing, homelessness- can we stand behind housing for the less fortunate.
13. In your opinion, what are the greatest challenges facing the industry today that ORRA should address?
Public MLS - how do we protect our listings, How do we stay relevant in light of Trulia and Zillow and other online advertisers.
14. What is your position on the issues of property taxes, insurance, and private property rights?
 Gov. Scott signed a bill for private flood insurance-Will it end up being too high as well. Save our homes seems to work well. Private property rights are coming under assault and it seems we hear more about eminent domain. These are topics for serious discussion. We have to protect our own land.
15. If elected, what would you like to have accomplished by the end of your term?
New faces taking education courses at ORRA. Licensing is about the law, ORRA is about the career and how to do business in a professional and ethical way. Elevate our status among other professions.

- d. Membership meetings and events – multiple Membership luncheons and events, one inaugural event, Great American REALTOR® Days visit to Tallahassee, one awards event, RPAC Auction
- e. State association meetings – one three-day meeting in January and one three-day meeting in August. These meetings are especially important if you are appointed a state director.
- f. Various meetings – committees, task forces, work groups, etc.
- g. Planning and training sessions (required) – one annual leadership training session and one strategic planning retreat (if held).
- h. Community commitment (the Chamber's Hob Nob, zoning meetings, etc.)

To my knowledge, the above information is true, correct, and complete.

Signed: Kathi Adkins

 (Candidate)

Date: June 2, 2015

Note: This completed consent-to-serve form will be posted on the ORRA website.

- A. ELECTION PROCEDURES: The ORRA Board of Directors will establish the election calendar for the year. Official consent-to-serve forms, policy and other information regarding the election process are available at the association. The following procedures will be followed:
1. The consent-to-serve form (available on www.orlandorealtors.org) should be typed, completely and accurately filled out, and signed by the candidate. In signing, the candidate is verifying that the information is complete and accurate. You can submit the form on-line, return the form by mail, or fax it to the association at 407.293.6380.
 2. All consent-to-serve forms are to be returned by 5 p.m. on July 1, 2015, so that information packets can be compiled and distributed to the ORRA Qualifications Committee for review when the committee meets.
 3. Once the consent-to-serve form has been filed it cannot be amended or altered in any way. All consent-to-serve forms of qualified candidates are made available for viewing on the ORRA website. In addition, responses to selected questions on the consent-to-serve forms will be reproduced EXACTLY AS WRITTEN in Orlando REALTOR[®] magazine.
 4. All candidates must appear for an interview before the ORRA Qualifications Committee, composed of seven REALTORS[®], to answer any questions concerning their qualifications. There will be no phone interviews. The committee will explain to each candidate the duties and responsibilities of each office and the commitment required for that office. The committee will then seek a commitment from each candidate. Interviews will be held all day on July 28 before the ORRA Qualifications Committee.
 5. The ORRA Qualifications Committee shall interview each candidate to ensure he/she is deemed qualified to hold the office he/she is seeking, and then a notice will be sent by August 30, 2015 to all members announcing the names of all qualified candidates running for office.
 6. An electronic ballot will be transmitted via the internet to each member eligible to vote by September 16. The ballot will contain all of the officer and director candidates in alphabetical order and will also contain biographical information on each candidate for review. After the ballot review period, members are allowed to vote starting September 21, 2015 and ending at midnight on September 25, 2015. Members will vote via the Internet. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes (plurality) in their respective position shall each be declared elected.
 7. The election results will be announced at the October 2, 2015 Realtor[®] Expo. (Location to be announced)
