

Phi Alpha Delta's FEE STRUCTURE

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International is a non-profit 501(c)(7) organization.

The International Initiation Fee (IIF) covers the costs of materials for chapters, membership pins, new member certificates, and general liability insurance coverage for P.A.D. chapters. Each initiation fee also includes a $2.00 donation to the Phi Alpha Delta International Foundation, our 501(c)(3) charitable entity.

Many professional fraternities charge a pledging fee, initiation fee, charge for pins or badge separately, annual national fees, materials, membership certificates, and more.

We Do Not.

YOU CAN JOIN PHI ALPHA DELTA AT ANY POINT IN YOUR LEGAL CAREER.

Law & alumni initiation fees cover a lifetime of P.A.D. membership.

Phi Alpha Delta members benefit from networking & leadership opportunities, discounts & member benefits, professional development, career support, scholarships & grants, and community service through programming.

Some membership benefit discounts, including law school application fee waivers and test prep discounts, are more than IIF fees; so in that way, membership pays for itself.

Monthly payment plans are available.
