

Why Join P.A.D.?

LAW CHAPTERS

Phi Alpha Delta members benefit from networking & leadership opportunities, discounts & member benefits, professional development, career support, scholarships & grants, and community service through programming. The following are additional benefits just for law student members.

1

LAW MOCK TRIAL

One of the largest in the U.S., the P.A.D. Mock Trial Competition for Law School Chapters is host to 28 teams annually and judged by volunteer lawyers, judges, and Mock Trial veterans who offer invaluable, real-world feedback. The Competition offers an opportunity to practice trial advocacy skills in a courtroom setting.

2

BAR EXAM PREP

Enjoy benefits from bar exam prep companies and professionals, including discounts on prep courses, presentations on study strategies, and wellness and organization tips.

3

CONVENTION

Join hundreds of P.A.D. law students and alumni to benefit from workshops, keynote speakers, CLE courses, networking, and fraternalism.

The 2020 Convention hosted keynote speakers Fred Gray, Rosa Parks' attorney; Congresswoman Donna Shalala; and Sam Amirante, legal counsel for serial killer John Wayne Gacy.

4

CAREER CENTER

The Phi Alpha Delta Career Center is a members-only resource to help members connect with career opportunities nationwide. The center also offers a wealth of resources including resume review, interview preparation, career coaching, and more.
