Pretest-Posttest Coding Scheme

(One point each for the following; partial credit is in parentheses)

1. Identifies at least two key terms to search by from the question (1/2 for just one term)

2. Uses the library catalog

3. Demonstrates understanding of differences between types of searches in the catalog
   (keyword, subject, title, etc)

4. Uses a library database

5. Uses database features to limit search results

6. Identifies if the article is scholarly/peer reviewed or from a popular source

7. Explains why they think this would be a reliable or appropriate source

8. Identifies at least one component of the database search results (author, title, journal, etc)