Copyright Conundrums: Managing Your College Campus

Jessica Urick Oberlin       Lycoming College       PaLA Conference 2014
September 30, 2014

Take Action

1. Educate yourself.
2. Devise a means of keeping records.
3. Form policies and access to them.
4. Form a committee that deals with copyright concerns.
5. Develop a process for working with diverse groups of people.
6. Consult the experts.
7. Educate students when you can.

Education

- Online courses
  - Copyright Clearance Center
  - American Library Association: “Copyright for Teachers and Librarians”
- Blogs
  - Kevin Smith, J.D., Duke University
  - Nancy Sims, University of Minnesota Libraries
  - Kyle K. Courtney, Harvard University
- Readings

---

Invite Speakers to Campus

Donna L. Ferullo, J.D.

Director of the University Copyright Office & Assoc. Prof. of Library Science

Purdue University          ferullo@purdue.edu          765-496-3867

---

Contact Info:

Jessica Urick Oberlin
Snowden Library
Lycoming College
700 College Place
Williamsport, PA 17701
oberlin@lycoming.edu
570-321-4352
@obejess