Attention 7th through 12th Grade Students and Teachers!

To help promote financial literacy education among students, Harrisburg University of Science and Technology, in partnership with the Harrisburg School District, is holding a state-wide financial literacy contest titled:

“WHAT DOES FINANCIAL LITERACY MEAN TO ME?”

This contest is for grades 7-12 in the Harrisburg School District, as well as any other school districts in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Submissions can include a 2 minute video, short essay, or poem on what financial literacy means to you. First prize is $500; second prize is $250; and third prize is $125.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE | NOVEMBER 26, 2018

Send submissions to:

Dr. Jay Liebowitz
Distinguished Chair of Applied Business and Finance
Harrisburg University of Science and Technology
326 Market Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101
JLiebowitz@HarrisburgU.edu
Questions? Call Jay at 717.901.5163

Winners will be announced in April 2019 in time for Financial Literacy Month