

The PaLA Conference will take place October 14 - 17, 2018 at the Hilton Harrisburg located in downtown Harrisburg. Given its close proximity to the State Capitol, this venue is likely to be a draw for librarians from all types of libraries across the state who seek continuing education and networking opportunities and to connect with state leaders.

We invite you to partner with us to increase your visibility with more than 500 library professionals who have the plans, authority and budgets to make buying decisions. In fact, 94% of 2017 attendees indicated they have buying input, of these 63% are final decision-makers. Don't miss this chance to maximize your brand presence for this important group!
