Amends Titles 18 (Crimes & Offenses) & 63 (Professions & Occupations (State Licenses)), in criminal history record information, for use of records by licensing agencies; for Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs; making a repeal.

(PN 3057) Amends Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) and 63 (Professions and Occupations (State Licensed)), in criminal history record information, providing that criminal convictions shall not automatically preclude the issuance of a license, certificate, registration or permit by a licensing agency; providing provisions regarding the General Counsel, the Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs and licensing boards and licensing commissions related to the power and duty to issue subpoenas; consolidating the provisions of Act 48 of 1993; and making a related repeal. Licensing bodies may refuse, suspend or revoke any license on the basis that the crime directly relates to the occupation for which certification is sought, or that an individualized assessment of the relation of the conviction to the applicant's overall suitability to engage in the profession for which the permit is sought shows substantial risk to the individual's clients or a substantial risk of further criminal convictions. The legislation provides exceptions for applicants if the individual can establish sufficient mitigation or rehabilitation and fitness to perform the duties of the trade for which the license is sought. Where the criminal conduct is related directly to the certification sought, the licensing body shall consider relevant proof of any factors that would rebut an adverse presumption or show rehabilitation. The legislation requires a prescriber to assess whether or not the individual has completed a 12-week conservative care management treatment regimen administered by a doctor of chiropractic or other licensed physical medicine and rehabilitation professional, and further requires that if it is determined that the individual has not completed a 12-week conservative care management treatment regimen, the prescriber shall refer the individual to a conservative care management treatment specialist to complete a 12-week conservative care management treatment regimen before issuing a prescription. The legislation also requires that if the individual has completed a 12-week conservative care management treatment regimen, the prescriber shall consult with the individual's conservative care management treatment specialist as soon as practicable to determine if a prescription should be issued, and the reasons provided by the conservative care management treatment specialist as to why a prescription should be issued shall be documented by the prescriber. The legislation provides that the requirements do not apply if a conservative care management specialist recommends to a prescriber the issuance of a prescription for an individual, and that the requirements shall not apply to a prescriber who may prescribe a controlled substance containing an opioid to an individual seeking treatment in an emergency department or urgent care center. Effective in 180 days.

Amends The Insurance Company Law, in quality health care accountability and protection, providing for protections for consumers receiving surprise balance bills for health care services from out-of-network providers.

(PN 2795) Amends The Insurance Company Law of 1921, in quality health care accountability and protections, establishing protections for consumers receiving surprise balance bills for health care services from out-of-network providers. If an out-of-network provider renders a health care service to an insured, the out-of-network provider may bill the insurer and be reimbursed directly for a covered service at the commercially reasonable rate directly for that service, unless the insurer has a contract that addresses payment for an out-of-network provider or the insurer and out-of-network provider agree otherwise. An out-of-network provider may not bill the insured for the difference between the out-of-network provider's charge and the amount of the commercially reasonable rate paid by an insurer for the covered service and the out-of-network provider may bill the insured for no more than the in-network cost-sharing amount. The legislation establishes procedures for insurers and health care providers when health care services from out-of-network providers are provided. The legislation indicates that out-of-network providers may not advance a surprise balance bill to collection. Effective in 180 days.
