Welcome to Parents Without Partners! (PWP)

PWP is the largest international, nonprofit membership organization devoted to the welfare and interests of single parents and their children.

Single parents may join one of the many chapters around the US and abroad; they may be male or female, custodial or non-custodial, separated, divorced, widowed or never married. We are an organization dedicated to fostering healthy environments for parents and their children alike!

The Single Best Organization in the World!
PWP is a non-profit organization that offers support, education, and a safe environment for single parents and their children.

Find a welcoming environment for you and your children to make new friends!

Enjoy events that are organized by fellow single parent volunteers who already know the hotspots and attractions in your area!

Are your kids grown up already? Take the opportunity to mentor younger parents on their journey or just spoil their kids and send them home!

Children are top priority in PWP! We are required to have educational activities that will take us on outings to places like the zoo, museum, or even camping to learn about the stars. Other required family friendly events may include a trip to the park, a bike ride, or game night at a member’s house. Are you bored with your same old routine? Take advantage of other members’ ideas and try an event you might not ever have thought of on your own!

Relate with other adults as single parents in a safe environment. Expand your social circle with a new group of supportive friends who understand the unique challenges of a single parent.
