INTERNATIONAL ELECTIONS (Bylaws Article VIII)

At the Annual International Convention held each July, half of the International Officers are elected for two-year terms.

Nominating Committee consists of three members of the IBOD. The committee is elected at the first IBOD meeting following the annual election. Candidates’ resumes and petition forms are sent to the International Nominating Committee Chair. No nominations will be accepted any later than the forty-fifth day (45) preceding the first day of the Annual Meeting.

ELECTIONS - Election is by ballot. A plurality elects.

VOTING

All current members as of May 31 each year will receive one ballot each.

Any PWP member with a valid membership card may attend and participate in the Annual Meeting.

BALLOTS

International Ballots – Our Policy prescribes that anyone eligible may come on a petition for International Officer up to 45 days prior to the election. This means that ballots CANNOT be sent to members until the final list of candidates can be included. Therefore, ballots will be provided no less than 2 weeks before the first day of International Convention by e-mail or regular mail. Those mailed by regular mail will be in a legal size white envelope with the word “ELECTION BALLOT ENCLOSED” on the front of the envelope.
