

PASCV Forum Code of Conduct

Overview and Purpose

As the primary forum for member exchange and networking, PASCV's Forum promotes interaction among members who share common areas of interest. The PASCV Forum allows members to share information, raise concerns, mentor one another, and publish shared work.

With this Code of Conduct, we hope to help you understand how best to collaborate in the forum, what you can expect from moderators, and what type of actions or content may result in temporary or permanent suspension from participation. In the interest of fostering an open and welcoming environment, we as contributors and maintainers pledge to make participation in the forum a harassment-free experience for everyone.

By participating in this forum, you agree that you have read and will follow these rules and guidelines.

Standards

- Do not post any defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, anticompetitive or illegal materials.
- Don't challenge or attack others. The discussions and comments are meant to stimulate conversation, not to create contention.
- Do not post any information protected by copyright without the permission of the copyright owner. By posting, the member warrants and represents that it owns the copyright to such information, or has received permission from the person or entity who owns the copyright to such information.
- Do not post commercial messages, such as promotional announcements, advertising, product-related press releases, or other commercial use. You may post a message asking for information or recommendations for products or services that you need.
- Comply with all federal and state privacy laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA).

Enforcement

If you see a problem, report it. With your help, forum moderators can be facilitators of discussion and open exchange and not strictly enforcement. Actions PASCV may take in response to a flag or abuse report include, but are not limited to:

- Content Removal
- Content Blocking
- Forum Account Suspension
- Forum Account Termination

Legal Considerations
