

Interpersonal and Communication Skills 2

Information Gathering and Sharing

Level 1

Describes the positive and negative effects of information technology on accuracy of information

0 (N/A) 1 (poor) 2 (fair) 3 (good) 4 (very good) 5 (excellent)

(Note: need score of 5 to demonstrate competency of this level)

Level 2

Ensures medical records are accurate and complete, with attention to preventing confusion and error (e.g., makes appropriate modifications when using copy and paste)

0 (N/A) 1 (poor) 2 (fair) 3 (good) 4 (very good) 5 (excellent)

(Note: need score of 5 to demonstrate competency of this level)

Level 3

Regularly updates the medical record communicating clinical reasoning as care evolves (e.g., on-call evaluations, patient preferences, team/family meetings, conflict resolution, and advance directives)

0 (N/A) 1 (poor) 2 (fair) 3 (good) 4 (very good) 5 (excellent)

(Note: need score of 5 to demonstrate competency of this level)

Level 4 (Graduation Target)

- A. Demonstrates effective integration of information from all available sources to facilitate patient-centered care

0 (N/A) 1 (poor) 2 (fair) 3 (good) 4 (very good) 5 (excellent)

- B. Documents information in compliance with current regulatory requirements (e.g., CMS, Joint Commission, institutional requirements)

0 (N/A) 1 (poor) 2 (fair) 3 (good) 4 (very good) 5 (excellent)

A+B = ____ (Note: need score of at least 9 to demonstrate competency of this level)

Level 5 (Aspirational)

Serves as an expert resource in communication technology

0 (N/A) 1 (poor) 2 (fair) 3 (good) 4 (very good) 5 (excellent)

(Note: need score of 5 to demonstrate competency of this level)

Comments:

Attending Signature: _____