

BIOGRAPHY

Milton Ezrati

Partner and Senior Economist and Market Strategist

Milton Ezrati is a Partner and Lord Abbett's Senior Economist and Market Strategist, responsible for economic research and strategy, enabling clients to gain context and a further understanding of today's global markets.

Mr. Ezrati, who has more than 30 years of experience in the financial services industry, joined Lord Abbett in 2000. He was named a Partner in 2004. Prior to joining Lord Abbett, he was Senior Vice President and Head of Investing for the Americas at Nomura Asset Management USA.

A recognized authority on a range of global and domestic financial issues, Mr. Ezrati speaks to audiences across the United States, Europe, and Asia. He frequently contributes to and is quoted in a variety of publications, including The Wall Street Journal, Barron's, and The Financial Times, and appears on financial television providing market commentary.

Mr. Ezrati is the author of Kawari, one of the foremost books detailing the economic changes in Japan. He is an Affiliate of the Center on Human Capital and Economic Growth in the Department of Economics at the State University of New York at Buffalo and has given lectures at several schools, including New York University and the Fletcher School at Tufts University.

Mr. Ezrati received an MSS in mathematical economics from Birmingham University in England and a BA in economics from the State University of New York.