American Institute of Constructors
Constructor Certification Commission
Examination Site Administrator and Proctor(s)

One of the goals of the American Institute of Constructors (AIC) Constructor Certification Commission (CCC) is to ensure that the certification examination process occurs in a quality manner. Various activities associated with the examination process may impact the level of satisfaction of those involved including the Examination Site Administrators and Proctors.

To ensure that an effective working relationship between the Examination Site Administrator and Proctor(s) and the CCC is maintained it is important that a formal assessment take place following each examination.

Instructions:
Please take the time to respond to the items below and return it to Professional Testing Corporation in the same envelope as the examinee satisfaction surveys. Each proctor should fill out one survey.
