Francis R. Dugan Scholarship Application

About Fran Dugan and the Dugan Scholarship

The Francis R. Dugan Scholarship was created by the American Institute of Constructors (AIC) Educational Foundation in the April of 2014 to award financial scholarships to students in accredited Construction Management related Associate and Baccalaureate Degree Programs. The Dugan Scholarship is named for longtime AIC Member and AIC Education Foundation Founder Francis R. Dugan, CPC, FAIC. Fran passed away on December 26, 2014. Mr. Dugan was a member of the AIC for over 45 years, a Past National President, and CPC #93. Each year, one $2,000 scholarship will be awarded. 3 Runners-Up will be awarded a complimentary Associate Constructor Examination Registration.

Eligibility

1. The candidate must be a full-time student within an accredited Construction Management or Construction Related Associate or Baccalaureate Program or a student entering an accredited program. Students within 12 months of college graduation are not eligible.
2. Students must have achieved a minimum grade point average of 3.0 based on a 4.0 scale at the time of application.
3. Incoming freshmen are not eligible.
4. The candidate must be a current Student Member of the AIC.
5. Scholarships are not automatically renewed, but may be applied for, in consecutive years.
