AIC Board of Directors Nominations

The American Institute of Constructors is seeking construction professionals to fill 1 positions on the AIC Board of Directors to help lead the association dedicated to the individual Professional Constructor. Each position carries a 3-year term to begin May 2019 and end 2022.

There are many benefits to serving as a volunteer leader, including:

1. Playing a significant role in the profession;
2. Having an opportunity to enhance the value of AIC;
3. Collaborating with other driven professional volunteer leaders;
4. Enhanced industry recognition and networking opportunities

The AIC Board of Directors meets twice per year in person at the AIC Annual Conference and the Mid-Year Meeting. Currently, schedule for at least one meeting at the 2019 AIC Constructor Conference in November 2019 in Philadelphia, PA. By accepting a nomination, you commit to attending those meetings. AIC Directors represent AIC at the highest level and provide strategic leadership and direction for the Institute. Directors lead efforts including but not limited to Committee Chairmanship, Program Development, Strategic Alliances, Fundraising, Finances, and Governance of the Institute. Directors should be strategic, forward thinking leaders who have a strong desire to advance the AIC into the future.

Nomination Instructions:
