Your Chapter Is Closer to Receiving an Award Than You Think

This month, many chapters are “gearing up” for a productive 2021–22 year. Would you like to honor your officers and advisors’ efforts? Make it your goal to achieve a Psi Chi Model Chapter Award.

By completing nine basic tasks throughout the upcoming school year, your chapter will be eligible for one of fifty $100 prizes and recognition for being a healthy and active chapter. Start your chapter’s application today and we’ll send you reminders throughout the year to help you stay on track.

Mark Your Calendar for These Chapter Awards

- Chapter Activity Grants ($750)—Sept 20
- Kay Wilson Officer Leadership Award ($1,500)—March 1
- Ruth Cousins Chapter Award ($2,000)—April 15
At Psi Chi we believe in community and the advancement of psychology. Why not show your support by purchasing the PsychEverywhere T-shirt? Help build our community and spread awareness!

ADVERTISEMENTS

Spotting Normal vs. Abnormal Behavior
Dr. Harris O'Brien spoke with mental health resource @medcircle about identifying the signs of normal vs. abnormal behavior in children and adolescents. Watch the full conversation.

The Power of Storytelling
Dr. Matthew Genuchi spoke with mental health resource @medcircle about social psychology and understanding the impacts of the world around you. Watch the full conversation.
LATEST NEWS

Nominate a Psi Chi Member to Serve
We are now accepting nominations for members of Psi Chi’s Nominations/Elections Committee (due September 15). Read more about this and other Psi Chi service opportunities.

Attend APA 2021, August 12–15
Learn from Psi Chi Distinguished Lecturer Dr. June Gruber about steps toward gender and intersectional equity in psychological science. A special conversation hour will follow the main event for registered attendees.

New Presidential Citation Recipients
Join us in congratulating Drs. Iva GreyWolf, Royleen Ross, Alfiee Breland-Noble, and Debi Brannan on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Increase Your Applicant Pool
University of La Verne’s PsyD program nearly doubled its out-of-state applicants in just one year of using APA’s PSYCAS. Gain visibility for your graduate psychology program and attract more applicants—join PSYCAS today!

Let’s Replicate Hajak and Foti (2008)
#EEGManyLabs welcomes beginner and experienced researchers in EEG & Startle laboratories. Coauthor a Registered Report for Cortex and replicate the 2008 study, “Errors Are Aversive: Defensive Motivation and the Error-Related Negativity.” Read more.