Where Are You Now? Plan A or Plan B?
Did you know 50% or more of college students change majors? Rethinking your focus is a common experience for both students and alumni and can even result in a more satisfying career (Sleigh & Ritzer, 2019).

Did you stick to a psychology-related career path or apply your psychology training toward a career in a different field? Please share your path and discover the one taken by your peers when we publish the results in our December blog. Three participants (by 11/30) will also be randomly selected to receive one of three $25 Amazon Gift Cards. Thank you for sharing!
