Graduating seniors: Does your final semester feel like the loooongest one yet?

Embrace your “graduation anticipation” today by purchasing official Psi Chi Graduation Regalia. Our honor cord, stole, and lapel pin will help you stand out from the crowd and impress your family and friends. And FYI: adding all three of these items to your online cart will result in an automatic 20% discount.

Your graduation day only happens once, but photos and memories of this event will last a lifetime. Be sure to place your orders at least 10 business days in advance to ensure that everything arrives in time for your ceremony!

Note. “Graduation anticipation” is not a recognized clinical diagnosis. But between us, we both know it’s real, just like the happiness we feel for your accomplishments. We are proud of you and can’t wait to find out what you’ll do next!
