Picture Perfect: Show Off Your New Inductees!
Did you know: Members often identify their induction ceremony as their favorite Psi Chi memory! Preserve this year’s memories by submitting photos and a brief description of your chapter’s spring ceremony. We are excited to share your stories in our digital magazine, social media, etc.

Note. Pictured above is the fall 2019 induction ceremony at the University of La Verne (CA).

Give a Gift to Your New Members or Graduating Seniors

CONDUCTING RESEARCH

Happy Research Month! Explore many ways to gain student research experience with Psi Chi.

The Research Incubator Welcomes Project Proposals
Psi Chi’s Research Incubator is a new opportunity for students and faculty to come together to design a series of projects that will be collaboratively run in 2023–24 (starting May 2023). Teams will design studies that will be combined into a joint research project. For more details, please see the flyer.

“Cut to the Chase” With New Journal Highlights
Starting with our newest volume, Psi Chi Journal articles now feature brief bulleted Highlights in order to help readers quickly identify important takeaways. View an example. Faculty and students are invited to publish original empirical research in our prestigious journal, which is indexed in PsycINFO and EBSCO databases. Advisors, here’s a flyer you can share with students.

LIVE EVENT

Healing for Helpers: Trauma Resiliency for First Responders
California School of Professional Psychology (CSPP) is pleased to announce its next live webinar scheduled for April 20, 11:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m. PT. The featured speakers will analyze historic mental health treatments for first responders and their levels of effectiveness.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

Officers, Will You Leave Your Chapter Better Than You Found It?
Ensure that your chapter’s legacy lives on! Here’s a brief worksheet you can fill out to support incoming officers/advisors. Also, consider inviting new officers to shadow you so that they’ll know what to expect when their terms start this summer or fall. Thank you for serving at your chapter.

All Available 2022–23 MAFs Have Now Been Awarded
It has been an honor to provide all 120 membership fee waivers (including 20 designated for COVID-related assistance) to outstanding students with unique financial situations. The Membership Assistance Fund (MAF) will replenish on July 1 for the new fiscal year.
